FFFFFFFFFF Numb. 6293.

The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, December 21. 1721.

Turin, December 9.

'THE King ſet out Yeſterday on his 'Tour to Suſe, ſo long talk'd of, 'and the General Officers and others 'expecting that he will review the 'Regiment there, took Poſt the Night before, in 'order to be found in their reſpective Stations.

Vienna, Dec. 10. The Interceſſions in Behalf of the Duke of Mecklenbourg continue, and 'tis ſaid that the Elector of Mayence makes greater Inſtances than ever on that Subject. It is affirmed that Count Kinsky is to come back ſhortly from Petersbourg; the Succeſs of his Negociations there are not yet publickly known. The Differences with the City of Hambourg concerning the providing a Houſe and Chapel for the Emperour's Miniſters in that City, are not yet totally adjuſted. M. Lanzinski, the Czariſh Reſident, has notified to his Imperial Majeſty, that the Czar, at the Requeſt of his Subjects, has taken on himſelf the Title of Emperour; and that he hoped his Imperial Majeſty will acknowledge him in that Quality, the Emperour Maximilian having given that Title upwards of 200 Years ago to the Czar Baſilowitz: It is not yet ſaid what this Court will determine on that Head. Advices from Rome ſay, the Pope has conferr'd the Abbey of St. Leonard upon Cardinal Alberoni, being worth 14000 Ducats a Year, at which moſt of the Cardinals ſhew a great deal of Jealouſy and Surprize.

Hague, Dec. 12. 'The States General's An'ſwer to the Inſtances made by Prince Kurakin for 'having his Maſter acknowledged Emperour of 'Great Ruſſia, contains in Subſtance, "That "nothing could be more agreeable to their High "Mightineſſes than the Communication made to "them of the News of the Peace concluded by the "Czar with the Swedes; that their High Mighti"neſſes take part in every Concern in Matters re"ſpecting his Czariſh Majeſty, or that tend to en"creaſe the happineſs of his Family, and conſequent"ly muſt have heard with great Satisfaction the "convincing Proofs the Czar's Subjects have given of "their Gratitude for the many Advantages his Ma"jeſty has conferred upon them at the Expence of "his Tranquility and Hazard of his Life, in deſiring "him to accept the Title of Emperour, &c. That "their High Mightineſſes acknowledge, that in"deed his Czariſh Majeſty's Actions have been ex"traordinary; but as to the Title of Emperour, "they muſt deſire him to conſider that ſuch a Pub"lick Acknowledgement as is demanded of them, "regards more particularly the Conſent of crown'd "Heads primarily to that of Regents of Repub"licks; and that they ſhall readily follow the "Example of crown'd Heads in this Particular, "who otherwiſe cannot but reſent a Proceeding "that anticipates theirs, in a Matter which imme"diately regards them, and much nearer than it "can any Republick whatever". It is a Matter 'of Curioſity to hear how the Czar will reliſh this 'Anſwer; In the mean time Prince Kurakin has 'acquainted the Spaniſh and Portugueze Miniſters 'here of theſe Inſtances he has made with the 'States General. Advices from Spain ſay, that the 'States Ambaſſadour at that Court had delivered 'Vice-Admiral Somerſdyke's Letter to the Mar'queſs de Grimaldo, who promiſed to uſe his good 'Offices towards adjuſting the Differences that hap'pened between the ſaid Admiral and the Spaniſh 'Conſul at Cadiz. Since the Letters that were re'ceived ſome time ago from the States Reſident at 'Bruſſels, containing the Marqueſs de Prié's laſt 'Propoſals for an Accomodation of the Diſputes 'between the India Company here and the Oſten'ders, nothing further is done in that Matter, ſaving 'that thoſe Propoſals have been communicated to 'the Directors of that Company both at Amſterdam 'and Zealand.

Paris, Dec. 20. The Commiſſioners for clearing the Paper Effects having received Orders to begin with ſuch Declarations as relate to the ſmall Sums, to wit, from 100 Livres upwards to 5000 Livres, 'tis computed thoſe only will take them up above ſix Weeks. Every one of thoſe Commiſſioners is to have 1000 Livres Salary. There is an Office a-part eſtabliſhed, where ſuch Declarations as are clogged with Difficulties are to be ſent to, in order to be communicated to thoſe whom they concern, and who will be obliged to furniſh the neceſſary Explications in eight Days time; after which, all the Commiſſioners are to aſſemble, and decide in what Manner the clearing of ſuch dubious Effects is to be made. The laſt Advices from Avignon are extreamly bad; the poor Inhabitants are reduced to the utmoſt Diſtreſs, all their Phyſicians and Surgeons being dead of the Plague, as well as moſt of the Waiters in the Infirmaries, where the Beds are ſaid to be ſo much overwhelmed with Vermin, that the poor Patients chuſe rather to die upon the Ground, than to be tranſported into thoſe Infirmaries. The Number of the Dead of that Place amounts to near 4000. The Medals that are to be ſtruck on occaſion of the King's Marriage with the Infanta, have theſe following Devices and Inſcriptions, viz.

The King's Head with that of the Infanta on the ſame Side, with their Names round about.

On the Medal Edge.
